HIS BODY IS LAID IN ARLINGTON

Full Military Honors Given to Major George E. Pickett, Who Died at Sea.

Washington, D. C., May 18.—Rumbling along over the rough highways to Arlington National Cemetery, a heavy army caisson this afternoon bore the body of Major George E. Pickett to his final resting place, with military honors.

Born into the military life of the Confederacy while his father, General George E. Pickett, was distinguishing himself in his battles against the Union soldiers, Major Pickett's whole life was tinged with things military, and when he died he was serving as an officer in the ranks of the soldiers whom his father fought.

Major Pickett's body reached Washington at 5:15 o'clock this morning, just one month after his death at sea.
Funeral services were conducted at the apartment of his mother, Mrs.
Pickett, in the Ontario at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. J. H. Nelms conducted the services.

With officers who served with him in the pay department of the army as honorary pall-bearers, and escorted by a troop of the Fifth Cavalry from Fort Myer, Major Pickett was buried with full military honors. The honorary pall-bearers were General C. H.
Whipple, General C. C. Stiffen, Colonel George R. Smith, Colonel G. F. Downey, Major R. W. Blauvelt, Colonel S. A.
Day, Colonel Benjamin Alvord and Colonel W. D. McGraw.

The death of Major Pickett occurred while he was homeward bound with his wife and two sons, George E. and Christianity, and his mother, the wife of the Confederate general. The party was but three days out of Manila on the transport Logan when Major Pickett died.

Death was due to Bright's disease.

NO REQUISITION FOR GREENBERG

Governor Declines to Order Man Sent to New York for Trial.

ISSUE FARMERS' BULLETINS

Department to Send Out Monthly Information—Salomonsky Promoted.

After hearing the personal statement of Benjamin Greenberg, who was wanted in New York on a charge of desertion, with arguments on both sides, Governor Mann yesterday refused to honor the requisition for Greenberg, issued by Governor Dix. Detective-Sergeant W. F. Boyle, of New York, represented that State, while Greenberg was accompanied by his counsel, Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville.

It is worthy of note that Boyle is the man who made the arrest of Eddie Kay and Dick Harris for robbing the Richmond Post-Office more than a year ago.

The charge against Greenberg was that he had deserted his children and left them in New York without support, coming to Charlottesville, where he secured employment as a jeweler. He was arrested and placed in jail, being later admitted to bail pending the hearing on the requisition papers.

Ready to Make Provision.
Greenberg told the Governor that he was perfectly willing to provide a home for his children in Charlottesville, if his wife would let them come to him, or would send money for their support. He was not, however, willing to live with his wife, and it appears that under the New York law a man cannot be prosecuted for wife desertion.

In consideration of the man's statement, and in view of the fact that the primary reason for requisition—that the prisoner is a fugitive from justice—was not shown in this case, Governor Mann refused the requisition.
There is no other recourse for New York State except that the Governor told Greenberg if he refused to support his children when given the chance, he would probably honor any future requisition demanded.

ISSUE MONTHLY BULLETIN

Farmers to Receive Important Information From Dept. of Agriculture.

For the information of the farmers of the State, and to keep the Department of Agriculture in closer touch and make it more valuable to the farming interests, Commissioner Kotner will hereafter issue monthly bulletins for free distribution. These will be sent out to mailing lists of the names of all parties who ask for them.

Heretofore the department's bulletins have been issued quarterly, and contained nothing but analyses of fertilizers. Recently, the department sent out a new form of bulletin, containing not only the fertilizer information, but also some special articles on the preparation of ground for crops, seeding and news as to the operation of laws which have recently come into effect.

This new bulletin has been determined upon that it has been determined to publish such bulletins every month, and due regard will be paid to the needs of the season. The fertilizer analyses will be continued as part of these bulletins.

battalion commander of the Fourth Infantry, has been elected lieutenant-was recently placed on the retired list.

Tax Commission to Meet.
A meeting of the State Tax Commission has been called for June 5, in the courtroom of the State Corporation Commission. At this meeting Dr. D. S.
Freeman, the technical member of the commission, will present chapters 2, 3 and 4 of his report on the tax system of the State. This report has already gone to Governor Mann. Chapter 1 was presented to the commission at its meeting last September, and referred to separation of subjects of taxation.

The sections which will be considered at the coming meeting are concerned with taxation of banks, insurance companies and personal property.

Many Autos Licensed.

Activity in automobile sales in this State is indicated by the licenses issued to owners of new machines by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.
The total number licensed for 1911 up to the close of business yesterday was 2,428. This number does not include dealers, of whom there are seventy, and who operate an unknown number of machines under their general license.

GETS VERDICT FOR $34,000.

Judgment for Knickerbocker Trust Co.
Against Prominent Wilmington Man.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., May 18.—One of the first suits to grow out of the big squabble over the Rockingham Power Company's property, near Rockingham, N. C., involving construction work at Blount Falls, was tried in the United States Circuit Court here this week.
The Knickerbocker Trust Company, of New York City, obtained judgment for $34,000 against William E. Worth, a prominent man of this city.

Mr. Worth subscribed to stock in the concern, and paid in $9,000, but when the mix-up occurred refused to pay more, and the Knickerbocker Trust Company, which loaned him $100,000 to build the power company, several million dollars, sued Worth, who made several charges. He alleged that this city, and officers of the Rockingham Power Company, had been guilty of fraud, and conspired to cheat him out of his money. These charges caused one fight, and were aired in court to-day. Worth fell down on his suit, and was unable to sustain his countercharges, so Judge Conner rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, which, with interest, amounts to about the sum named. The defendant took an appeal. Worth has a suit in the State Courts against the Knickerbocker Trust Company.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau,
The Times-Dispatch.

1029 Hull Street.

Phone Madison 175.

Deserted by her husband, penniless and in ill health, Mrs. Dillard Kearson, who lived at the corner of Fifth and Deputy Streets until a removal notice for unpaid rent was served on her, is making a pitiful attempt to find homes for her four little children, in order that she may be free to find work. She has finally been persuaded by her friends to issue a non-support warrant against her husband, and it was served last night.

Mr. Kearson is too ill herself to appear in court, where her husband is a well known figure, but she will be represented by her sister, Mrs. Rosa Toddy. The last time Kearson was seen by his wife was Sunday morning about daylight.

Mrs. Kearson and her little children have been sent to the home of her sister, at Stop No. 2, Petersburg Pike. The deserted wife, because of her love of the children, does not want to commit them to a charitable institution, but would like to find homes for them in Richmond, where she could see them at intervals.

The children are eleven, nine, six and three years old, respectively.

To Invite All Candidates.

As proof of the assertion that the Washington Ward Democratic Club is a non-partisan organization, it has been announced that it will invite all four candidates for the United States Senate to speak under its auspices.
While the invitations have not been sent out, it is expected that the resolution will be passed at the next meeting.

In addition, it is expected that the four candidates will be elected honorary members. From indications, Messrs. Swanson, Martin, Jones and Glass will accept the invitation.

While Mr. Jones has announced his intention of speaking in the Southside shortly in the interest of his candidacy, it is not certain that he will speak under the auspices of the club.

In Oak Grove Court.

The regular weekly session of the Oak Grove Magistrate's Court will be held this morning at 10 o'clock before Magistrate Chatham in the Oak Grove courthouse. Many small cases are to be tried.

youth, who threatened Officer Jerrell recently when the latter went to serve a civil warrant on him, will appear to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Edith Carrington, the colored girl accused of the murder of a young child at Granite, Easter morning, will be given a preliminary hearing before the magistrate this morning.

Lectures in Chesterfield.

Some apprehension is felt by the residents of Chesterfield over the appearance of the much-heralded seventeen-year locusts. Reliable reports are coming in of the visitation of these pestiferous insects in different sections of the county, and lately it is stated that they have appeared in small numbers in the neighborhood of Felling Creek, on the Petersburg car line.

From the reports, little damage has been done by this advance guard of the horde, but it is expected that their activity will increase as they strengthen in numbers. The warnings given out by the government experts do not predict a severe plague in this part of the county, but Chesterfield will certainly receive a taste of the creatures.

Lecture Called Off.

On account of the death of T. B.
Sadler, the oldest and most popular deacon of the Weatherford Baptist Church, the lecture which was to have been given to-night has been called off.
The death of Mr. Sadler has elicited many expressions of regret from members of this congregation and his friends, and his absence will be felt by the church in its future work.
